

Lead Proposing Organization And Contact	Partners	Proposal Summary
United Way King County Dave Sieminski (206) 461-4934 dsieminski@uwkc.org	United Way Snohomish County 21 community-based organizations 4 Banks Evans School – UW US DHHS – Assets for Independence Program Gates & Casey Foundations	Provide up to 150 low-income King and Snohomish County households with the means to invest in home ownership, education, small business start-up and other assets that will improve their lives. This project has drawn in over $400,000 in additional IDA funds and has a broad array of area service providers.
Spokane Neighborhood Action Programs Kerri Rodkey (509) 456-7174 rodkey@snapwa.org	Consumer Credit Counseling World Relief DVR – DSHS US Bank Farmers & Merchants Bank Wells Fargo Sterling Savings Numerica Credit Union US DHHS – Assets for Independence Program	SNAP will continue it excellent work in providing IDAs for a range of asset investments for low-income Spokane County residents. At least 50 households will save and purchase assets and over $135,000 in additional funds have been raised for this project.
Diocese of Yakima Housing Services Debbie Buse (509) 965-7100 dbuse@cfcsyakima.org	Consumer Credit Counseling Yakima USDA – Rural Development Rural Community Assistance Council Heritage University Banner Bank Yakima Federal S & L	The Diocese will use state IDA funds to help 20 first time home buyers save and purchase homes in Mabton and Granger in Yakima County.
Housing Authority of Tacoma Nancy Vignec (253) 207-4455 nvignec@tacomahousing.org	Pierce Co. Housing Authority Consumer Counseling NW Habitat for Humanity Pierce County City of Tacoma Washington Mutual WA Women’s Employment &	The Tacoma and Pierce Co. Housing Authorities will use their proven expertise in homebuyer assistance to help over 30 low-income renters purchase homes. They have also leveraged at least an additional $400,000 in down payment assistance for account holders.

	Education
Lower Columbia Action Council Jean Marshall (360) 578-4243 JEMarshall@esd.wa.gov	Longview Housing Authority WorkSource Cowlitz Family Finance Resource Center Clearview Employment Services Cowlitz Bank	Provide up to 20 low-income Cowlitz and Wahkiakum County households with the means to invest in home ownership, education, small business start-up and other assets that will improve their lives.
Housing Authority Island County Teri Anania (360) 678-4181 haicfss@seanet.com	Opportunity Council Citizens Against Domestic & Sexual Abuse People's Bank	This project will assist at least 8 families or individuals displaced by domestic violence to save and purchase assets toward a better future.
Foster IDA Pilot United Way of King County YMCA of Greater Seattle Dave Sieminski (206) 461-4934 dsieminski@uwkc.org	Youth Source Treehouse Mocking Bird Society Jim Casey Foundation WA Mutual Bank	Project partners will use IDAs to help at least 20 youth in foster care successfully save and invest in their transition to independent adulthood. This will be the first instance that IDAs are used for young people in WA state.